MIX CANYON PHOTOS

The Jepson Chapter Plant Sale/Propagation Committee often goes to Mix Canyon northwest of Vacaville (see the red marker on the above map) to collect plant seeds and cuttings for propagation at our native plant nursery in Vallejo. Committee members made two trips to Mix Canyon in March and found many native plants in bloom. They took photos to share with the rest of our members. Those photos can be viewed on the Jepson website.