January 31, 2015 Work Day at Vallejo Sanitation District Native Plant Nursery

Jan DeGiere and Carole Gates fill pots with sterile potting soil for new plants.
Barbara Reiley waters repotted plants.
Becky Mannion and Steve Goetz ponder their next task.

Sue Maddux works on the irrigation system.
Carole Gates repots native plants that are outgrowing their four-inch pots.

Linda Sonner recycles plastic pots by washing them with chlorinated water to remove any soil-born diseases, before reusing them.
