Solve Your Drought Needs with Napa’s California Native Plant Society Sale Oct. 15 & 16

Join us at Skyline Park for the Fall Native Plant Society sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, October 15th & 16th. Skyline Park is located at 2201 Imola Ave, Napa, CA 94559. For information, visit www.napavaleycnps.org. Admission is free.

Fall is the ideal time to plant California Natives. Over 1,000 hard-to-find native plants will be available for sale at Napa’s Skyline Park Social Hall, and are ready for fall planting in your garden. Experts will be on hand to answer your questions.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Join us on Saturday, October 15 at 11:30 am for a presentation on landscape design basics and using native plants in your garden. Cathy Baskin, certified Landscape Designer, specializes in designing and installing gardens of native drought tolerant plants. Don’t miss this information packed presentation.

The adjacent Martha Walker Garden will be open to see many of these plants identified in a landscape setting. The rich diversity of California’s native ground covers, grasses, shrubs, vines, and trees will satisfy every gardener’s needs. All proceeds benefit the maintenance, improvement, and educational programs of the Martha Walker California Native Habitat Garden in Skyline Park, maintained by the Napa Chapter, California Native Plant Society (CNPS).

About Napa Valley Chapter of the California Native Plant Society: We are a non-profit organization dedicated to sharing information on native plants. Our chapter is fortunate to have the Martha Walker Native Habitat Garden in Skyline Park as an educational and public recreational asset plus an adjacent nursery. We offer gardening, propagation, and habitat workshops for Chapter members and for the public. Our mission is to promote the natural beauty of California’s native plants through education, science, advocacy, horticulture, and land stewardship, with a focus on the critical roles of native plants in the ecology of native fauna, as well as the health and recreation of society.
